POST-OFFICE NOTICES.

When Correspondence has been mis-sent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all to which the addressee need do is to note on the cover, Sent to or Received p.m., or as the case may be, and forward it, without any other writing, whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a mistake to let such matters pass for fear of incurring a charge which generally gives more trouble in the end.

In consequence of the interruption on the 10th inst. the mails will be only one week delivered. Letters and parcels may be posted in the General Post Office up to 12 o'clock. No Sunday delivery.
